Get to Know Your Police Department

The Citizens Police Academy helps local community members and police officers learn more about each other and develop strong relationships.

The Academy provides citizens with a working knowledge of their local police departments' presence and activities while educating law enforcement about the issues and concerns of the communities they serve. The Academy lasts 10 weeks and is free for participants.

Topics

Instruction focuses on a different area of police work each week and includes a combination of lectures, demonstrations, tours, and hands-on activities. Topics include:

- IU Police Department–Northwest and City of Gary Police Department histories
- Criminal justice system overview
- Criminal investigations
- Use of force
- Crime scene processing
- Community policing/Crime prevention
- Legal concepts
- Uniformed patrol procedures
- K-9 units

Although participants of the Citizens Police Academy receive training in numerous police-related subjects, the graduates are not prepared or encouraged to participate in any actual police services.
